INVESTING IN JUSTICE, LAW AND ORDER (JLOS)

The justice, law and order sector contributes to all NDP objectives by:

- Enhancing national policy, legal and regulatory framework through reform, harmonization and dissemination of priority laws, policies, procedures and standards; and enhancing public participation in reform processes.
- Enhancing access to JLOS services for all particularly the poor and marginalized groups.
- Promoting the respect and observance of human rights and institutional accountability for service delivery.

KEY POLICY ASKS

- Expedite the establishment and maintenance of an up-to-date civil register, including timely registration of births in the entire country.
- Exercise zero tolerance on corruption by apprehending and prosecuting corrupt public and private officials in a non-discriminatory manner.
- Strengthen the capacity of officials at the subnational level, and set up facilities that can enable investigation and appropriate handling of criminal matters to enable justice for all.

KEY FACTS

- Total nominal allocation projected to decrease from UGX 1,119.7 Billion in FY 2017/18* to UGX 1,104.6 Billion in FY 2018/19.
- The Justice Law and Order Sector accounts for 5% of the national budget (FY 2018/19).
- The development share of the sector budget is expected to account for approximately 21% of total allocation.

2017/18* - Refers to Approved Budget for FY 2017/18
Medium Term Sector Policy Objectives

JLOS has a sector strategic development plan which is fully anchored in NDP II. The objectives within this plan include:

- Enhancing infrastructure and access to JLOS services.
- Promoting the observance of human rights and fight corruption.
- Strengthen the commercial justice and the environment for competitiveness.

“By investing in infrastructure and removing critical barriers, JLOS will improve “access to justice” by enabling any person, regardless of income, to use the legal system to advocate for themselves and their interests.”
